

iField

The solution supported multiple field work

Visualized The "Field" for Work

Maintenance Construction Investigation Inspection Delivery

"iField" was born for field works. It is a service which strongly support the field.

"iField" is the enterprise solutions involved in the field work corresponding to a smartphone and a tablet.
It is a useful for various field work, such as maintenance, construction, investigation, inspection, delivery, and so on.
It has many functions, such as status management, making report, organization of pictures, management of locating information and map, management of buildings and facilities, and so on.
There are business which is difficult to pursuit about productivity and efficiency, but it is possible to introduce "iField" immediately because of the functions.

Solves the problems Information sharing! Efficiency up!

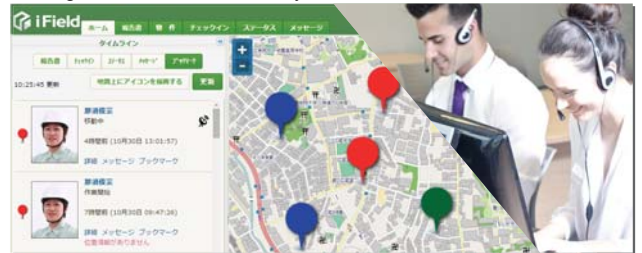

Simple manual-less operation in various field

The functions are simple design, but they consist of the high operability interface.
It provides the easy operability such as input of selection and button, voice input, and free hand memo on a map and pictures.

Who? Where? Status? Intuitive WEB interface

It has timeline which shows the target user's situation. It also has a map interface which shows an activity position to change every moment.
You can be grasped intuitively the situation of the field, then you can send a message to all field workers when you notice.

Useful functions

Supports you with useful functions which utilize the extensive experience and experience.

Trace management of locating information

Using a periodic notification of locating information, it can manage a tracking of any interval.
It also manage a area, and it can judge IN or OUT of area.

Making various report formats

By cooperation with the Excel, it can make some report formats using various templates.
Every group can use other format using group function.

Work order message from the office

It can order someone who related to the building to do work.
It supports field correspondence smoothly because it can send pictures or files.

Option

Navigation
Barcode
Real-time streaming
CAD etc.

The introduction results to various industries by high customization.

iField can support various movement environment, network environment including closed network.
It responds to the consultation with a wealth of experience.

Agricultural union
Construction company
Academic institution
Research company
Broadcast company
Medicine company

A system of supporting harvest and managing farm field.
A system of watching speed and controlling traffic of dump trucks.
A system of confirming and searching the disaster situation when disaster happened.
A system of distributing questionnaires and managing recovery situation.
A maintenance system for broadcast facilities.
A management system of delivery situation for medicines.